

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GIL CROSTHWAITE,

Plaintiff,

No. C 07-01564 JSW

v.

WESTERN TRACTION II INC.,

Defendant.

ORDER RE REQUEST TO ENTER JUDGMENT

On June 5, 2009, Plaintiff filed a declaration that was docketed as a motion. In the declaration, Plaintiff stated that Defendant had defaulted on the agreement between the parties and requested that the Court enter judgment pursuant to the parties' stipulation filed on December 27, 2007. The Court's Clerk informed Plaintiff that this Court requires parties seeking action from the Court to file a properly noticed motion or a stipulation. Instead of filing a properly noticed motion or a stipulation to enter judgment based on the Defendant's default, Plaintiff simply re-filed the stipulation the parties had filed on December 27, 2007. The Court will only act on Plaintiff's request if she files a properly noticed motion or a current stipulation based on the facts Plaintiff contends has occurred.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 29, 2009
